

The 2014-2015 Monthly African Studies Brownbag Seminar Series

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE, TO BE CONFIRMED

*All events are public and take place on a Wednesday from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the History Lounge, 433 Paterson Hall
("PA" on the map of Carleton, <http://www2.carleton.ca/campus/>)*

Updated August 25 2014

- September 10 Eurico Josué Ngunga, Visiting Fellow, IAS, Carleton University
Science, Technology and Innovation: The case of systematization of innovation in Angola and its challenges for the development
- September 24 Julie Parle, Professor, University of KwaZulu-Natal
'Dark Remedy for a Dark Continent': Is there a History of Thalidomide in Africa?
Co-sponsored by History and Disability Studies
- October 22 Natasha Erlank, Professor, Historical Studies, University of Johannesburg
Women and Memorialisation in Contemporary South Africa
Co-sponsored by Public History
- November 26 Pius Adesanmi, Professor, English, Carleton University
African Studies in the Continent: Contact Zones & Entry Points for the Returnee Africanist
- January 7 Will Tait, PhD candidate, History, Carleton University
'Constellations of Humanity': Canairelief and the Biafran War, 1968-1971
- February 4 Chris Dyck, Post Doctoral fellow, NIPSIA, Carleton University
Reconstruction and Peace
- March 4 Hany Besada, Adjunct professor IAS
Governance and Management of Natural Resources in Africa.
- April 1 Karim Myatt, PhD candidate, Anthropology, Carleton
Informal Islamic movements in Morocco

For more information, contact us at 613-520-2600, x. 2220 or African_Studies@carleton.ca

This event is part of a whole day symposium on the history of thalidomide. For more information please ask the Institute of African Studies

