

CONTRACT INSTRUCTOR OPPORTUNITIES

Fall/Winter 2014-15

Course offerings for the Fall/Winter terms of 2014-15 are listed below.

Course	Description	Session
FYSM 1901	Selected Topics in African Studies:	Sept-Apr
	Topics offered may vary from year to year and will be announced in advance of the registration period by the Institute of African Studies.
AFRI 2001	Regions in Africa: Cultures, Society, Politics:	Jan-Apr
	Using dominant linguistic borderlines that have shaped much of the African experience in the last century, this course will look at crosscutting themes in culture, geography, society and politics in francophone, Anglophone, lusophone and arabophone Africa.
AFRI 4000	Advanced Topics in African Studies	Jan-Apr
	Seminar examining a specialized topic in African studies. The topic will vary from year to year.

If you have an interest in teaching any of these courses, please submit your Application electronically(CV and Cover-letter detailing expertise in African Studies including a brief outline on how you would teach this course) along with the Contract Instructor Application Form by Thursday, May 15th 2014.

Applicants interested in either FYSM 1901 or AFRI 4000 should also indicate the topic they will select and provide a brief description of the proposed course content.

Qualifications: Applicants should hold an MA or higher degree with established expertise in the area of African Studies, ideally pertaining to the course description.

Please note: Applicants who have incumbency and or seniority rights under the CUPE 4600 unit 2 Collective Agreements will be given priority in cases where they are among the qualified candidates.

Disclaimer: All contract instructor positions are subject to budgetary approval. Advertisement is not a guarantee that a particular course will be offered.

Your expression of interest for teaching should be sent to:
