Frank Underhill and the Politics of Ideas

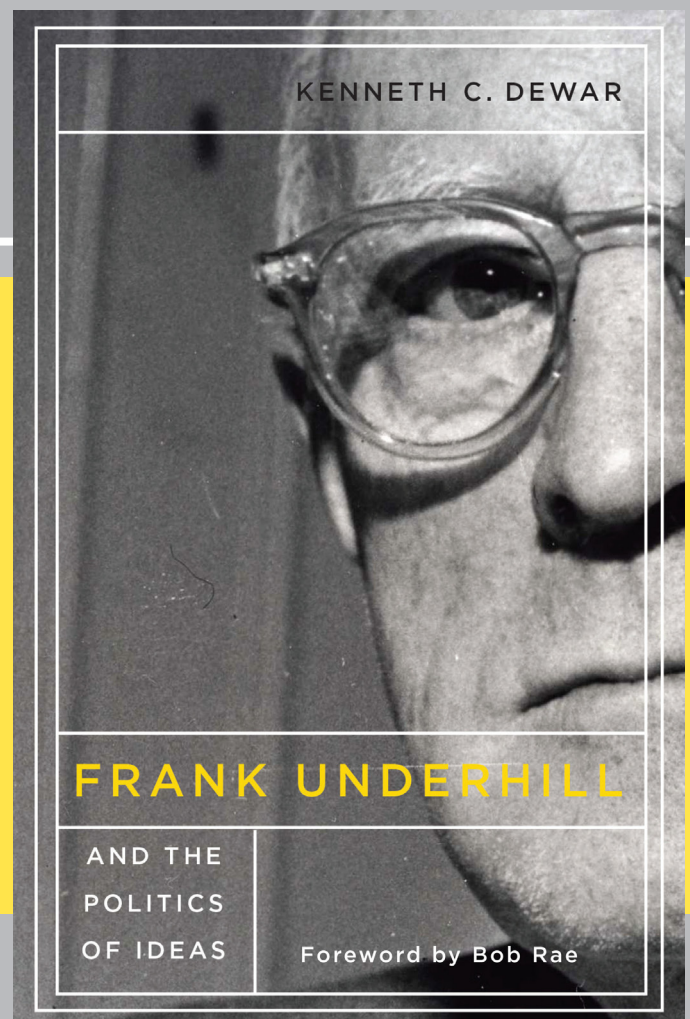

by Kenneth Dewar

Wednesday, April 1st, 2015
3:00-5:00 p.m.

History Department Lounge
Paterson Hall, 4th floor
Carleton University

“Frank Underhill was one of the best-known and most influential academic figures of his time. Dewar draws on Underhill's life, thought, and career to reveal what he calls 'a window on the intellectual landscape of twentieth-century Canada.' He succeeds admirably.”
